

FOOD IN FASHION

For Immediate Release

Food in Fashion event to spotlight emerging fashion designers, Dallas restaurants, and future restaurant professionals

Dallas, TX – January 27, 2017 – Cuisine meets couture at Food in Fashion on Weds., Feb. 15, 2017, 6-8 p.m., at 3015 at Trinity Groves, Dallas.

Sponsored by Neiman Marcus, Elettore, Trinity Groves, Save the Patio, and 3015 at Trinity Groves, Food in Fashion is presented by the Greater Dallas Restaurant Association.

Ten emerging fashion designers will partner with ten restaurants to create fashions for ten models in a “Project Runway” styled show. Ten percent or more of each fashion must come from the restaurant ... whether edible or not.

All nine members of the Dallas ISD Board of Trustees will team with Dallas ISD high school culinary career students to prepare some of the appetizers that will be served in a friendly, “Chopped”-like competition.

Tickets to Food in Fashion include appetizers, beverages, hot spins from Durty Laundry, a silent auction, and our sizzling fashion show emceed by WFAA-TV's Ron Corning.

Proceeds benefit the Texas Restaurant Association Education Foundation and its ProStart program in Texas public high schools, including twelve Dallas ISD high schools.

For more information, tickets, and a full list of our participating designers, restaurants, and sponsors, go to foodinfashion.org

###

EVENT DETAILS:

Food in Fashion

Weds., Feb. 15, 2017, 6-8 pm

3015 at Trinity Groves, Dallas

Sponsored by Neiman Marcus, Elettore, Trinity Groves, Save the Patio, and 3015 at Trinity Groves.

Presented by the Greater Dallas Restaurant Association.

Benefiting the Texas Restaurant Association Education Foundation's Texas ProStart culinary education programs in Dallas ISD and across Texas.

Tickets available at foodinfashion.org

Contact:

Randall White

randall.white@elettore.com

Mobile: (214) 457-0615

Please contact for interviews, images, advance photography opportunities, and event media passes